TITLE: ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF EARNING CREDIT

Umpqua Community College recognizes six alternative processes through which a student may acquire college credit:

- Dual Credit (high school)
- Advanced Placement (AP) Program
- Challenge Procedure
- College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
- Credit for Prior Learning (CPL)
- Credit for Professional Certification (CPC)

Procedures detailing these processes can be found at the Advising and Career Center, in the college catalog, and on the college website.
