

2020 - 2021
Catalog
Corrections /
Addendum

Page
Number

Course # or Program Name	Type of change	Revision/Change	Effective Date
Associate of General Studies	Correction to credit requirements for number 4	4. Courses used to satisfy AGS degree requirements must be on the approved list on pages 40-41. Any courses 100 level or higher that bring the total credits up to 90 credits.	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Automotive Service Technology AAS Program	Removal	The Automotive Service Technology AAS program is being restructured into a one-year certificate. New applicants are not being accepted at this time.	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Automotive T-TEN Pathway, Certificate & AAS Program	Removal	The Toyota T-TEN Service Technician program is being phased out and will not be available in the 2020 - 2021 academic year	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Business Technology: Entrepreneurship Pathway Certificate	Correction to credits needed for electives	*Approved Elective- should read as 12 needed to complete course requirements	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Business Technology: Marketing Associate of Applied Science	Correction to credits	Year Two: BA 128 should read as 2 instead of 3	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Dental Assisting: Dental Assisting One-Year Certificate	Correction to course number. Year One.	DA 199 should be replaced with DA 190. Same course, same credits, same description. Different numbering of course	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
Civil Engineering & Surveying Technology: Applied Surveying Option	Delete two classes from General Education Requirements	Remove MTH 251 Calculus I & MTH 252 Calculus II	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year

35

56

57-59

62

67

86

100

108	Forestry: Forest Operations AS	Incorrect credits for BI 212 listed	Year One: BI 212 should read 5 credits	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
109	Forestry: Forest Restoration and Fire AS	Incorrect credits for BI 212 listed	Year One: BI 212 should read 5 credits	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
136	Viticulture and Enology: Associate of Applied Science	VE 280 lists incorrect credit	Year Two: VE 280 should read 4 credits	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
139	Welding: Welding One-Year Certificate	Remove class from Year One list.	Remove WLD 160 Aluminum Arc Welding & Fab-1 3 credits. Course is not needed for completion of the program	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
154	BI 211 Principles of Biology	Correction to the course description	BI 211: Cell structure and function; cellular metabolism; cell division; heredity; molecular genetics and biotechnology; molecular evolution. Courses must be taken in sequence. Registration-Enforced: Prerequisite/Corequisite: CH 104, CH 112 or CH 221 4 lecture, 3 lab hrs/wk. F	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
154	BI 212 Principles of Biology	Correction to the course description	BI 212: Plant structure and function: animal structure, function and behavior. Registration-Enforced Prerequisite: BI 211. Courses must be taken in sequence. 4 lecture, 3 lab hrs/wk.W	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
155	BI 213 Principles of Biology	Correction to the course description	BI 213: Chemistry of life; origins of life; population genetics and natural selection; diversity of prokaryotes and eukaryotes; ecology of biomes, communities and populations; conservation biology. Courses must be taken in sequence. Registration-Enforced Prerequisite: BI 212 4 lecture, 3 lab hrs/wk S	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year

163	DA 190 Dental Office Procedures	Course should have been added to the catalog to replace DA 199	The business office in today's modern dental practice functions as a highly technological facility with skilled personnel. This course enables students to acquire the abilities to succeed in today's contemporary dental practice. Telephone management, appointment scheduling and recall procedures are covered. The financial aspects of running a business are explored and applied. Students will experience and hands-on computer application to help them synthesize the basics of dental front office management, including all aspects of insurance forms and billing. marketing, communication and resume skills are presented and refined. Prerequisite: Currently enrolled in Dental Assisting Program. 3 lecture hrs/week. S	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
164	DA 199 Dental Office Procedures	Course should have been removed from catalog	Course is replaced with DA 190	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
166	ECE 230 Health, Safety, and Nutrition for the Young Child	Course should have been added to the catalog. Replaces FN 230	Introduces students to contemporary issues related to children's health and safety with an emphasis on the promotion of children's healthy development and well-being. 3 lecture hrs/wk. S	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
168	ENG 201, 202 Shakespeare	Course description updated	The Shakespeare sequence (ENG201 and 202) provides an introduction to Shakespeare. It proceeds chronologically: ENG201 focuses on selected works from Shakespeare's early to middle career; ENG202 focuses on works from Shakespeare's middle to late career. Students will learn to interpret Shakespeare using a variety of critical strategies, including literary, historical, and psychological approaches. Topics include early modern ideas and attitudes about gender, sexuality, class, and identity; Shakespeare's representation of women and other marginalized groups; his influences and sources, both classical and early modern; historical and contemporary conventions of drama; and changing perceptions of Shakespeare through history. Courses may be taken out of sequence. Available to both first-year and sophomore students. Recommended Pre-requisites: WR095 with a grade of C or better or appropriate placement test scores; AND RD090 with a grade of C or better or appropriate placement test scores.	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year

169	ENG 230 Environmental Literature	Course description updated	This course aims to explore the ways in which ideas about the physical or “natural” environment have been shaped into American literature. The course will survey a variety of important texts in this tradition and introduce students to different eras and genres of environmental literature and nature writing. Topics include Native American and Euro-American cultural perspectives, literary representations of nature, environmental ethics and history, progressive and radical writers, environmental legislation, and the impact of gender and race on environmental discourse. Recommended Prerequisites: WR095 with a grade of C or better, or appropriate placement test scores; AND RD090 with a grade of C or better or appropriate placement test scores.4 lecture hrs/wk. Offered in alternating winter terms (2020, 2022, 2024)	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
171	FA 256 American Film History	Course description updated	American Film History is an introductory course designed to bring American film into clear focus as an art form, a business, and a cultural phenomenon. The course explores how feature films work technically, artistically, and culturally. The course will probe the deeper meaning of American movies - the hidden messages of genres, the social and psychological effects of Hollywood film style, and mutual influence of society and popular culture. This course meets the requirement for the UCC AAOT Cultural Literacy. 4 lecture hrs/wk. F	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
191	PSY 130 Understanding Child Behavior	Correction to course description and credits	An introduction to the basic principles of understanding child behavior by providing a comprehensive framework in supporting students to become responsive teachers. Discussion and practice of ideas presented include methods of guidance, effective communication, conflict resolution, sexuality, developing healthy self concepts, and a democratic approach to living. 3 lecture hrs/wk W	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
193	SP 105 Listening	Correction to course descriptions	This course will examine the effect of listening style of personal and professional relationships and public interactions. Both theoretical and applied perspectives will be examined with emphasis on skill application. Students will also have an opportunity to assess their own listening strengths and weaknesses with opportunities to improve proficiency.	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year

193	SP 111 Fundamentals of Public Speaking	Correction to course descriptions	Preparation and delivery of common types of speeches. Primary emphasis on topic selection, content, organization methods, audience adaptation, listening, delivery, and evaluation of speeches.	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
194	SPAN 121 in the Workplace	Remove from catalog	SPAN 121 has been replaced with VE 121	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
195	TA 141 Acting 1	Correction to credits needed	Credits should say 4	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year
197	VE 121 Spanish for Viticulture	Replacing SPAN 121	This course will introduce students to basic grammar concepts and vocabulary pertinent to the field of Viticulture and Enology. Topics will be presented and discussed in a cultural authentic context exploring the realities of the industry in the Unlisted States today. Through active classroom participation, students will practice basic Spanish phrases needed to explain the purpose, procedures, and evaluation of planting, harvesting, and pruning. In addition, students will learn vineyard specific vocabulary and phrases to effectively carry out safe protocols. 4 lecture hrs/wk. W	2020 - 2021 Catalog Year